

Qualifications of Caregivers

All caregivers at In-Home Assistance have been carefully screened. Their past employers have been contacted and their references checked. In-Home Assistance performs background checks on all of our caregivers.

They are required to meet the high standards regarding health and job proficiency that you will come to expect from us at In-Home Assistance.

They will also comply with all State & Federal regulations that govern independent workers.